NJATSA strives to support the professional development and engagement of new clinicians and/or clinical student interns. NJ ATSA recognizes the importance of advancing the field by facilitating specialized training, networking and development of new clinicians who work with individuals who have engaged in sexually abusive behavior.

NJATSA will pay NJ ATSA and National ATSA dues for the coming year for two applicants per year.

The applicant must be a new clinician (less than 5 years in the field) or clinical intern who is working with sexual abusers.
